V.

[1] DOMINGO ACOSTA, Defendant.

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

The United States of America, Defendant Domingo Acosta, and Defendant's counsel, Ricardo Lozada-Franco, Esq., pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, state that they have reached a Plea Agreement, the terms and conditions of which are as follows:

1. Charges to which Defendant will Plead Guilty

Defendant agrees to plead guilty to Count One and Count Six of the Superseding Indictment.

Count One charges, in sum and substance, that beginning on a date unknown, but not later than the year 2021, and continuing up to and until July 17, 2024, from the countries of Colombia, the Dominican Republic, and elsewhere, and in the District of Puerto Rico, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, Domingo Acosta, the defendant herein, did knowingly and intentionally combine, conspire, confederate and agree with diverse other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to commit an offense against the United States, that is, to knowingly and intentionally import into the United States, five (5) kilograms or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine, a Schedule II Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance. All in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 952(a), 960(a)(1) & (b)(1)(B)(ii), and 963.

Count Six charges, in sum and substance, that beginning on a date unknown, but not later than in or about the year 2022, and continuing up to and until July 17, 2024, in the District of Puerto Rico and within the jurisdiction of this Court, Domingo Acosta, the defendant herein, aiding and abetting other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, did knowingly and intentionally possess firearms, in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime for which he may be prosecuted in a court of the United States.

2. Stipulation as to the Amount of Narcotics

The United States and Defendant stipulate Defendant shall be accountable for the possession with intent to distribute four hundred and fifty (450) kilograms or more of cocaine, a Schedule II Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance.

3. Maximum Penalties

Count One: The maximum statutory penalty for the offense charged in Count One of the Superseding Indictment, is a term of imprisonment of at least ten (10) years, but not more than life; a fine not to exceed the greater of that authorized in accordance with the provisions of 18 U.S.C. or $10,000,000.00; and a supervised release term of at least five years, all pursuant to 21 U.S.C. §§ 952(a), 960(a)(1) & (b)(1)(B)(ii), and 963.

Six of the Superseding Indictment, is a term of imprisonment of not less than five years and up to life in prison pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1); a fine not to exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3571(b)(3); and a supervised release term of not more than five years, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(b)(1).

4. Sentencing Guidelines Applicability

Defendant understands that the sentence will be imposed by the Court in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3551-86, and the United States Sentencing Guidelines (hereinafter "Guidelines"), which are advisory pursuant to the United States Supreme Court decision in United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005). Further, Defendant acknowledges that parole has been abolished, and that the imposition of Defendant's sentence may not be suspended.

5. Special Monetary Assessment

Defendant agrees to pay a special monetary assessment ("SMA") of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per count of conviction. The SMA will be deposited in the Crime Victim Fund, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3013 (a)(2)(A).

6. Fines and Restitution

The Court may, pursuant to Section 5E1.2 of the Guidelines order Defendant to pay a fine. The Court may also impose restitution. Defendant agrees to execute and make available, prior to sentencing, a standardized financial statement (OBD Form 500). The United States will advocate on behalf of any identified victim and comply with its obligations under the Mandatory Victim Restitution Act of 1996.

7. Sentence to be Determined by the Court

Defendant understands that the sentence to be imposed will be determined solely by the United States District Judge. The United States cannot make and has not made any promise or representation as to what sentence Defendant will receive. Any discussions that the parties might have had about possible sentences are not binding in any way on the Court, and do not constitute representations about what the parties will seek, or what the actual sentence will be.

8. Recommended Sentencing Guidelines Calculations

After due consideration of the relevant factors enumerated in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the United States and Defendant submit that the advisory Guidelines calculations listed below apply to Defendant. However, Defendant acknowledges that the Court is not required to accept those recommended Guidelines calculations.

SENTENCING GUIDELINES CALCULATIONS
COUNT SIX

18 U.S.C.§ 924(c)(1)(A)

A minimum consecutive term of imprisonment of sixty months is mandatory, with a maximum of life.

60 monthsTo run consecutively to the sentence imposed for Count One outlined above.

9. Sentence Recommendation

As to Count One, and after due consideration of the relevant factors enumerated in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the parties agree to recommend a sentence of imprisonment within the applicable Guidelines range at a total offense level of 33 when combined with the criminal history category determined by the Court. The parties acknowledge that 120 months is the minimum mandatory sentence applicable, as such, no party can recommend a sentence below that mandatory minimum sentence unless the defendant qualifies for relief under a separate provision of law.

As to Count Six, and after due consideration of the relevant factors enumerated in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the parties agree that the parties will request a sentence of imprisonment of sixty months, regardless of the criminal history category determined by the Court, to be served consecutive to the term of imprisonment in Count One of the Superseding Indictment and any other sentence.

The parties agree that the defendant's conviction in criminal case 23-165(FAB) is relevant conduct to the offense charged in Count One of the Superseding Indictment in the instant case for purposes of criminal history category determination. The parties further agree that 5 months and 16 days should be credited to Count One of the Superseding Indictment pursuant to U.S.S.G. §5K2.23.

The parties agree that any recommendation by either party for a term of imprisonment below or above the stipulated sentence recommendation will constitute a material breach of the Plea Agreement.

10. Downward Variance for Early Acceptance of Responsibility

The parties have agreed to recommend at sentencing that the Court grant a two-level downward variance from the applicable sentencing guidelines in recognition of the defendant's early acceptance of responsibility, which promotes the conservation of judicial and prosecutorial resources.

11. No Stipulation as to Criminal History Category

The parties do not stipulate as to any Criminal History Category for Defendant.

12. Waiver of Appeal

Defendant knowingly and voluntarily agrees that, if the sentence imposed by the Court for Count One is within or below the Guidelines range for the total offense level calculated in this plea agreement when combined with Defendant's criminal history category as determined by the Court, plus the mandatory sixty months of imprisonment for Count Six, Defendant waives the right to appeal any aspect of this case's judgment and sentence, including, but not limited to the term of imprisonment or probation, restitution, fines, forfeiture, and the term and conditions of supervised release.

13. No Further Adjustments or Departures

The United States and Defendant agree that no further adjustments or departures to Defendant's total adjusted base offense level and no variant sentence under 18 U.S.C. § 3553—other than any explicitly provided for in this Plea Agreement—shall be sought by Defendant. The parties agree that any request by Defendant for an adjustment or departure that is not explicitly provided for in this Plea Agreement will be considered a material breach of this Plea Agreement, and the United States will be free to ask for any sentence, either guideline or statutory.

14. Satisfaction with Counsel

Defendant is satisfied with counsel, Ricardo Lozada-Franco, Esq., and asserts that counsel has rendered effective legal assistance.

15. Rights Surrendered by Defendant Through Guilty Plea

Defendant understands that by entering into this Plea Agreement, Defendant surrenders and waives certain rights as detailed in this agreement. Defendant understands that the rights of criminal defendants include the following:

- a. If Defendant had persisted in a plea of not guilty to the charges, Defendant would have had the right to a speedy jury trial with the assistance of counsel. The trial may be conducted by a judge sitting without a jury if Defendant, the United States and the judge agree.
- b. If a jury trial is conducted, the jury would be composed of twelve lay persons selected at random. Defendant and Defendant's attorney would assist in selecting the jurors by removing prospective jurors for cause where actual bias or other disqualification is shown, or by removing prospective jurors without cause by exercising peremptory challenges. The jury would have to agree, unanimously, before it could return a verdict of either guilty or not guilty. The jury would be instructed that Defendant is presumed innocent, that it could not convict Defendant unless, after hearing all the evidence, it was persuaded of Defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, and that it was to consider each charge separately.

- c. If a trial is held by the judge without a jury, the judge would find the facts and, after hearing all the evidence and considering each count separately, determine whether or not the evidence established Defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
- d. At a trial, the United States would be required to present its witnesses and other evidence against Defendant. Defendant would be able to confront those witnesses and Defendant's attorney would be able to cross-examine them. In turn, Defendant could present witnesses and other evidence on Defendant's own behalf. If the witnesses for Defendant would not appear voluntarily, Defendant could require their attendance through the subpoena power of the Court.
- e. At a trial, Defendant could rely on the privilege against self-incrimination to decline to testify, and no inference of guilt could be drawn from Defendant's refusal to testify. If Defendant desired to do so, Defendant could testify on Defendant's own behalf.

16. Stipulation of Facts

The accompanying Stipulation of Facts signed by Defendant is hereby incorporated into this Plea Agreement. Defendant adopts the Stipulation of Facts and agrees that the facts therein are accurate in every respect. Defendant agrees and accepts that had the matter proceeded to trial, the United States would have proven those facts beyond a reasonable doubt.

17. Limitations of Plea Agreement

This Plea Agreement binds only the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Puerto Rico and Defendant. It does not bind any other federal district, state, or local authorities.

18. Entirety of Plea Agreement

This written agreement constitutes the complete Plea Agreement between the United States, Defendant, and Defendant's counsel. The United States has made no promises or representations except as set forth in writing in this Plea Agreement and denies the existence of any other terms and conditions not stated herein.

19. Amendments to Plea Agreement

No other promises, terms or conditions will be entered into between the parties unless they are in writing and signed by all parties.

20. Dismissal of Remaining Counts

At sentencing should there be any pending counts and should the Defendant comply with the terms of this Plea Agreement, the United States will move to dismiss the remaining counts of the Superseding Indictment pending against Defendant in this case.

21. Voluntariness of Plea Agreement

Defendant acknowledges that no threats have been made against Defendant and that Defendant is pleading guilty freely and voluntarily because Defendant is guilty.

22. Breach and Waiver

Defendant agrees that defendant will have breached this Plea Agreement if, after entering into this Plea Agreement, Defendant: (a) fails to perform or to fulfill completely each and every one of Defendant's obligations under this Plea Agreement; (b) engages in any criminal activity prior to sentencing; or (c) attempts to withdraw Defendant's guilty plea. In the event of such a breach, the United States will be free from its obligation under this Plea Agreement and Defendant will not have the right to withdraw the guilty plea. Moreover, Defendant agrees that if Defendant is in breach of the Plea Agreement, Defendant is deemed to have waived any objection to the reinstatement of any charges under the Superseding Indictment, Information, or complaint which may have previously been dismissed or which may have not been previously prosecuted.

23. Potential Impact on Immigration Status

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(b)(1)(O), Defendant hereby agrees and recognizes that if convicted, a Defendant who is not a United States citizen may be removed from the United States, denied citizenship, and denied admission to the United States in the future.

24. Felony Conviction

Defendant hereby agrees and recognizes that the plea of guilty in this case will be recognized as a felony conviction, which will result in the loss of certain rights, including but not limited to the right to vote in a federal election, to serve as a juror, to hold public office, and to lawfully possess a firearm.

25. Firearms and Ammunition Forfeiture

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C.§ 924(d) and 28 U.S.C.§ 2461(c), the Defendant agrees to forfeit his rights and interest in any firearms and ammunition involved or used in the commission of the offense, including, but not limited to: one Glock pistol, Model 23, .40 caliber, bearing serial number BFTD901; one Glock pistol, Model 19, 9MM caliber, bearing serial number BSLF890; one Special Cobra revolver, with serial number A83628; two .40 Glock pistol magazines; and, two 9MM Glock pistol magazines.

26. Forfeiture Provision

Defendant agrees to waive and forgo any interests or claims over any property constituting, or derived from, any proceeds obtained, directly or indirectly, as the result of the offenses charged in Count One and any property used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of, the offense. Defendant agrees to forfeit the aforementioned property under 21 U.S.C. § 853 & 970.

Defendant further agrees to waive all interest in any such asset in any administrative or judicial forfeiture proceeding, whether criminal or civil, state or federal. Defendant agrees to consent to the entry of orders of forfeiture for such property and waives the requirements of Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 32.2 and 43(a) regarding notice of the forfeiture in the charging instrument, announcement of the forfeiture at sentencing, and incorporation of the forfeiture in the judgment.

Defendant acknowledges that the forfeiture of assets is part of the sentence that may be imposed in this case and waives any failure by the court to advise Defendant of this, pursuant to Rule 11(b)(1)(J), at the time Defendant's guilty plea is accepted.

Defendant further agrees to waive all constitutional and statutory challenges in any manner (including direct appeal, habeas corpus, or any other means) to any forfeiture carried out in accordance with this Plea Agreement on any grounds, including that the forfeiture constitutes an excessive fine or punishment. Defendant agrees to take all steps as requested by the United States to pass clear title to forfeitable assets to the United States, and to testify truthfully in any judicial forfeiture proceeding. Defendant acknowledges that all property covered by this agreement is subject to forfeiture as proceeds of illegal conduct, giving rise to forfeiture and/or substitute assets for property otherwise subject to forfeiture.

Defendant, by agreeing to the forfeiture stated above, acknowledges that such forfeiture is not grossly disproportionate to the gravity of the offense conduct to which Defendant is pleading guilty. Defendant agrees that the forfeiture provisions of this Plea Agreement are intended to and will survive Defendant, notwithstanding the abatement of any underlying criminal conviction after the execution of this agreement.

The forfeitability of any particular property pursuant to this agreement shall be determined as if Defendant had survived, and that determination shall be binding upon Defendant's heirs, successors and assignees until the agreed forfeiture, including any agreed money judgment, is collected in full.
